INTRODUCTION

The greatest gift that Allah Ta'ala blesses any person with is undoubtedly the gift of Imaan. Any person blessed with Imaan, has to take care and look after his Imaan very, very carefully until eventually he is blessed with death on Imaan. This indeed is the greatest success. Allah Ta'ala says in the Qur-aan-e-Kareem;

وَلَا تَمُوتُنَّ إِلَّا وَأَنْتُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ

None of you should die except that you are Muslims (Believers)

This was the concern of all the Ambiyaa عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ . On their death beds, they would call their children and advise them to worship Allah سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى only and ensure that they die on Imaan and Islam.

Our passport for entry into Jannah is Imaan. Without this, no one will be allowed to enter. Abu Taalib, who was the beloved uncle of Rasulullah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ and who was responsible for bringing him up and supporting him in the effort of inviting people to Islam, died without Imaan. Nabi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was informed through wahi that he will enter the fire of Jahannam forever and ever. On the contrary, if a person was a disbeliever his entire life and he accepted Islam just before he passed away, he will be regarded as successful and will enter Jannah forever.

From the eight subjects taught at a maktab, Aqaaid is the most important subject. This forms the foundation of Islam. The first thing a child is taught at the maktab is the five kalimahs, thereby strengthening his Imaan.

Children attending state and private schools are faced with huge challenges. Their Imaan is attacked from all sides. At times they are made to pray to Christ and ask him for their daily bread. After meals they are made to say grace and thank Jesus for providing them with food. This affects the Imaan of these young children. Darwin's theory of evolution is compulsorily taught in all schools leaving a child with doubts as to who his creator is.

It is for this reason that a child, from a young impressionable age, is taught the important beliefs of a Muslim to combat the attacks against our Imaan and Islam. The syllabus has been prepared to help firmly embed the fundamental beliefs of a Muslim in the heart and mind of every Muslim child.

May Allah Ta'ala accept this humble effort and make it a means of safeguarding our Imaan.

أَلْهَمَّ نَبِّتْنَا عَلَى الْإِيمَانِ وَأَمْتْنَا عَلَى الْإِيمَانِ وَاحْشُرْنَا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مَعَ الْإِيمَانِ

O Allah keep me firm on Imaan, allow me to die with Imaan and raise me on the day of Qiyaamah with Imaan

LESSON 1

IMAAN IN BRIEF

آمَنْتُ بِاللَّهِ كَمَا هُوَ بِأَسْمَائِهِ وَصِفَاتِهِ وَقَبِلْتُ جَمِيعَ أَحْكَامِهِ

I believe in Allah as He is with all His names and all His qualities, and I accept all His commandments.

Section 1

- 1 Allah Ta'ala is perfect in every way.
- 2 All His qualities are perfect and exclusive to Him. The qualities of the creation are not like the qualities of Allah Ta'ala. For example:
 - a) Allah Ta'ala hears everything, everywhere at the same time.
 - b) Allah Ta'ala sees everything, everywhere at the same time.
- 3 Allah Ta'ala always had these qualities and they will remain forever.
- 4 There is wisdom in every commandment of Allah Ta'ala.
- 5 We do not question any commandment of Allah Ta'ala.
- 6 We must happily obey all Allah Ta'ala's commandments.

Allah Ta'ala has ninety-nine names.
Whoever memorises them, will enter Jannah.

There are certain (seven) important beliefs that a person must have in order to be a Muslim.

A person who rejects any of these beliefs cannot be a Muslim and will not enter Jannah.

The seven beliefs are:

آمَنْتُ بِاللَّهِ وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ وَكُتُبِهِ وَرُسُلِهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَالْقَدْرِ
خَيْرِهِ وَشَرِّهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى وَالْبَعْثِ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ

- ① I believe in Allah Ta'ala.
- ② I believe in His angels.
- ③ I believe in His books.
- ④ I believe in His messengers.
- ⑤ I believe in the day of Qiyaamah.
- ⑥ I believe in taqdeer (that good and bad is from Allah Ta'ala).
- ⑦ I believe in life after death.

LESSON 3

AL-HAADI (THE ONE WHO GUIDES)

- 1 Allah Ta'ala is the One who guides us to the straight path.
- 2 Allah Ta'ala guides us to that which is beneficial for us.
- 3 Allah Ta'ala grants Hidaayah (guidance) to whomsoever He wills.
- 4 No one else can grant Hidaayah to any person.

Allah Ta'ala Guides Hazrat Salmaan Al-Faarisi Radhiyallahu Anhu

Hazrat Salmaan Al-Faarisi Radhiyallaahu anhu was from a place called “Jay” in Persia. His father loved him very much and put him in charge of looking after the fire which they worshipped.

Allah Ta'ala inspired him to leave his home in search of the truth. He lived with a few pious people when eventually a Christian priest told him to go to Madinah Munawwarah to find the truth.

This was the same time for the coming of the final Nabi. So, he came to Madinah Munawwarah where he met Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam and accepted Islam.

- ② We should be very careful because some things we say or do can lead to kufur.
- ③ Christians and Jews are Kaafir because they do not believe in the risaalat (prophethood) of Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam and they do not believe in the deen (religion) which he brought.

Examples of Kufur are:

- To laugh or mock at any part of Islam.
- To laugh or mock at the Sunnah of Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam.
- To say any other religion is correct. E.g. Christianity or Judaism
- To say the Quraan Kareem is incomplete.
- To doubt any aspect of Islam.

LESSON 6

SHIRK (TO ASSOCIATE PARTNERS WITH ALLAH TA'ALA)

- 1 A person who commits Shirk is called a mushrik.
- 2 Hindus and fire worshippers are mushriks.
- 3 To take another being or person as a partner with Allah Ta'ala is shirk.
- 4 To believe that any idol or person has the special qualities of Allah Ta'ala is shirk.
- 5 We should not bow to any human being or grave, even out of respect.

- ② It is a very serious sin to leave out the command of Allah Ta'ala.
- ③ Allah Ta'ala has commanded us to stay away from certain things. E.g Backbiting, stealing, taking drugs etc
- ④ It is a very serious sin to break the command of Allah Ta'ala.

 - f) Eating Haraam food i.e. it was slaughtered by a non-muslim.
 - 6 If we commit a sin we should immediately ask Allah Ta'ala for forgiveness.

HOW TO MAKE TAUBAH?

- 1 We should feel regret for breaking the command of Allah Ta'ala.
- 2 We should ask Allah Ta'ala to forgive us.
- 3 We should make intention not to commit the sin again.

Allah Ta'ala says in a Hadith Qudsi,
“O’ son of Adam, if your sins were to reach the sky (i.e they are so much that they fill the space between the earth and the sky) then you seek forgiveness from me, I will forgive you and it will not matter to me.”

- ⑧ Wahi is preserved in The Quraan Kareem and Hadith Shareef.

Story of Hazrat Sa'd bin Rabee' Radhiyallahu Anhu

Hazrat Sa'd bin Rabee' Radhiyallahu Anhu was martyred in the battle of Uhud. His two brothers took all his possessions. His family was left with nothing.

Hazrat Sa'd Radhiyallahu Anhu's wife went to Nabi Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam and informed him that the two brothers of Saad Radhiyallahu Anhu had taken all the wealth in accordance to the pre-Islamic custom.

When Rasulullah Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam heard this, he said: "Allah Ta'ala will decide in this matter."

Shortly after that, Allah Ta'ala sent down Wahi explaining how Hazrat Sa'd Radhiyallahu Anhu's wealth should be distributed among his heirs.

- ① The Quraan Kareem is the final book of Allah Ta'ala.
- ② The laws of the Quraan Kareem cannot be changed.
- ③ Allah Ta'ala has promised to protect the Qur'aan Kareem.
- ④ The Quraan Kareem we have is perfect and complete.
- ⑤ There is no more Wahi to come to complete our Deen because our Deen is already complete.
- ⑥ We must follow the laws of the Quraan Kareem.

Angels listening to the Quraan Kareem

One night, a Sahabi by the name of Hazrat Usaid bin Hudhair Radhiyallahu Anhu was reciting the Quraan Kareem. His horse was tied near him.

Suddenly his horse started jumping. When he stopped reciting, the horse calmed down and stopped jumping. This happened several times.

His son Yahya was sleeping close to the horse. Hazrat Usaid Radiyallahu Anhu became afraid that the horse may trample upon his son. Hazrat Usaid Radhiyallahu Anhu went towards Hazrat Yahya Radhiyallahu Anhu to pick him up.

After carrying him, he looked up in the sky. Then at that time, he saw something in the sky which looked like a cloud with lights in it. The cloud began floating into the sky until he could not see it any longer.

The next morning, he informed Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam about this. Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam said, “Those were angels that were listening to you. If you had kept on reciting, they would have remained there until the morning and all the people would have seen them.”

Did you know?

We should recite a portion of the Quraan Kareem daily in our homes. The Angels of mercy will surround our houses and we will be protected.

② Can Wahi be wrong?

③ Is Wahi like science? Can it change?

Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam then said to Hazrat Umar Radhiyallahu Anhu: “Are you in doubt O son of Khattab (regarding your Deen).

By the oath of Allah, I have brought a clear deen to you. It shouldn't be that you end up denying the truth they tell or you believe the falsehood that they tell.

He replied: “I did not prepare many actions for it except that I love Allah and His Messenger Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam.”

Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam said: “You will be raised with those whom you love.”(i.e. if you love Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam, you will be raised with him.)

ALLAH TA'ALA'S
PERFECT CREATION

- ① Allah Ta'ala by Himself created the entire creation in the most perfect manner.
- ② Nothing can come into existence by itself.
- ③ All humans, animals, insects etc are in the exact form that Allah Ta'ala created them in.
- ④ It is not permissible for anyone to try to change the way Allah Ta'ala created his creation e.g. a male dressing or trying to become like a female or a female dressing or trying to become like a male. The greatness of Allah can be seen in His creation.

LESSONS FROM CREATION

Allah created every animal in the best manner for its survival.

- Meat-eating animals such as lions, tigers etc have sharp teeth and claws so that they can quickly catch their prey.
- Plant-eating animals such as cows, sheep etc have flat teeth to grind leaves and grass.

Allah Ta'ala made everything in the best way for their intended purpose and survival.

HAYA (SHAME/MODESTY)

- 1 Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam encouraged us to have Haya (Shame and Modesty).
- 2 There should be Haya in everything we do. Eg. Dressing, talking etc.
- 3 Haya will save a person from acting shamelessly.
- 4 Haya will beautify all our actions.
- 5 A person who does not have Haya is likely to carry out shameless and wrong actions. Haya is an important part of Imaan.
- 6 It will save us from disobeying Allah Ta'ala and Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam.

Just as clothes protect our bodies, Haya protects our Imaan.

The Queen of Jannah

During her final illness, Hazrat Faatimah Radhi Allahu Anha said to Hazrat Asmaa bint Umais Radhi Allahu Anha, “I dislike what happens to women after they pass away. They are covered in a cloth which allows the shape of their bodies to be seen and described.”

Hazrat Asmaa bint Umais Radhi Allahu Anha said to her, “Would you like to know what I saw in the land of Abyssinia?” She then asked for some palm leaves to be brought. She then shaped the leaves into a frame which she placed over the bier, and then draped the cloth over the frame. In this way, the body of a deceased woman would be entirely concealed.

Hazrat Faatimah Radhi Allahu Anha said, “This is excellent!” She also made a bequest that she be buried at night and her wish was fulfilled.

Hazrat Faatimah Radhi Allahu Anha was the first woman in Islam whose body was covered in this manner at the time of her burial so that her body could not be seen by strange men.

ISLAM PROTECTS THE RIGHTS OF WOMEN

LESSON 26

- 1 Women had no rights before Islam.
- 2 Islam gave women their rightful position.
- 3 Islam commands us to respect our mothers
- 4 Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam advised us to be kind to women.
- 5 Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam said that the best person is the one who is good to his wife.
- 6 Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam himself treated his wives the best.
- 7 Islam prevents us from treating women in a cruel or unfair manner..

- ① Islam teaches us what is good and bad.
- ② As humans we have the ability to choose between good and bad.
- ③ We should always choose the good and leave the bad so that Allah Ta'ala will reward us and not punish us.
- ④ The Quraan Kareem and Sunnah guides us on what choice to make.
- ⑤ We should always choose what Allah Ta'ala wants us to do.
- ⑥ We should not choose to do anything against the command of Allah Ta'ala.
- ⑦ Our dressing, hairstyle, gender etc. is taught to us by our Deen.

Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam said, “What is halaal is clear and what is haraam is clear, and in between them are the things that are doubtful which many people do not know. So one who stays away from doubtful things has indeed protected his deen and honor. And one who falls into doubtful things falls into haraam things.”
