Rasulullāh Sallallāhu 'Alayhi wa Sallam said: “Whoever sees evil being committed,

1. Let him prevent it using his hands. If he cannot do so,

2. Let him prevent it by using his tongue. If not,

3. Let him at least consider it Harām in his heart, and this is the lowest form of Īmān.”
[Muslim, 49]

Individually and collectively, we must oppose the normalization of the sin of homosexuality. To use whatever means at our disposal to prevent the advancement of this scourge. If we do not, we may soon face a time when WE will be considered abnormal.
