

Halloween

NOT just a “harmless” tradition

- ❶ Adapted from an ancient pagan celebration holding the belief that on the night of 31st October, the barrier between the living and dead is blurred and the spirits of the dead return to Earth.
- ❷ The costumes, pumpkin lanterns and trick or treat, all have their origins in shirk and are in direct conflict with Islam.
- ❸ Satanists revere Halloween and regard it as a sacred occasion for their sorcery.
- ❹ Referring to Halloween a well-known satanist, says: “I am glad that Christian parents let their children worship the devil for at least one night out of the year.”
- ❺ By engaging in halloween traditions, we are unwittingly participating in satanic culture.
