

THE SPIRIT OF QURBAANI

The approach of the great Ibaadah of Qurbaani is a reminder of how our spiritual father, Sayyiduna Ibraheem Alayhis Salaam, was willing to submit himself to the command of Allāh Ta'aala.

Ibraheem Alayhis Salaam placed the commands of Allah Ta'aala above everything else. Whether it was separating himself from his people who were committing Shirk, leaving his family in the desert, or slaughtering his son, every command was fulfilled with perfection.

The bare minimum for every believer is that he should refrain from breaking the commands of Allah Ta'aala on the day of 'Eid, especially while carrying out this Ibaadah. Special attention should be given to avoiding sins such as photography, intermingling of males and females, music etc.
