

A'māl (actions) and Du'ās for protection

We have hope that Allāh Ta'ālā, out of His infinite mercy, will reward us for our good deeds in the Ākhirah, but the effects of our deeds are not just confined to the hereafter.

From the Qur'ān Karīm, Āhādīth Mubārak, and the experiences of the pious, we learn that A'māl (good actions) are a means of protection in this world as well.

Ultimately, Allāh Ta'ālā is in control of everything, and only He can grant protection and safety. The means of securing this help is through A'māl and abstention from sins.

Considering the prevailing uncertainty and potential unrest, the forthcoming series of suggested A'māl (9 posts) will prove very beneficial in averting harm, In Sha Allah. We are all encouraged to practise them regularly and encourage others as well.
