

INHERITANCE

Secure Your Legacy (6)

Did you know?

You cannot disinherit an heir

Due to family disputes, people often try to disinherit an heir.

The shares of your heirs have been ordained by Allāh Ta'āla and cannot be altered or cancelled by anyone.

If your child is alive at the time of your passing, he is entitled to inherit from your estate. Disowning him in your Will does not exclude him from the estate. He will still be granted his share, and according to the Hadith, you will be deprived of your "share" of Jannah.
