Secure Your Legacy (9)

Did you know?

Who should you choose as an executor?

The executor must be a trustworthy and competent Muslim who will ensure the estate is distributed strictly in accordance with Sharī'ah.

The "free" wills offered by banks are a trap: they appoint themselves as executors, and then profit from your estate.

How can we expect institutions built on Ribā (interest) to honour the sacred duty of executing an Islāmic will?

We cannot entrust our Dīn to people whose core business is built on Harām.
