SAFEGUARDING OUR IMAN

We are commanded by Allāh to refrain from emulating the disbelievers and to stay away from their evil.

If a Muslim attends the firework ceremony on the occasion of Diwali or he wishes' a Hindu "Happy Diwali" or a Christian "Happy Christmas" out of respect and honoring their celebration, then he has lost his Imān.

If he does the above without respecting and honoring their celebration, then his Imān will be in danger and he will definitely be sinful.
